Apply Online with HRe Partners

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – Forget about hitting the streets looking for jobs in the heat, you can go online at www.hrepartners.com anytime to search and apply for jobs available at 15 different organizations.

In December of 2000, Sedgwick County Human Resources, in partnership with the City of Derby, Kansas, inaugurated HRePartners. Since then the partnership has grown to include 15 cities, counties, and state agencies in Kansas.

HRePartners serves as a portal to employment information and application processes. In other words, a customer can log on to one web site, access information about opportunities in 15 different organizations, and submit the same on-line application for any of the positions posted.

"This is a great example of local governments working together for citizens," said Sedgwick County Commission Chairman Tim Norton. "By doing this, we make it more convenient and expand access for citizens to look for employment at Sedgwick County or with any of our partners. And most importantly, it's simple and a one-stop employment opportunity; accessible 24 hours a day."
